CLARKE & SON, F.A.I.,

Auctioneers and Valuers,

21 Rosemary Street, BELFAST.

Conditions of Sale.

1. The highest bidder for each lot shall be the purchaser, and if any dispute shall arise between two or more bidders the lot in dispute shall be immediately put up again for re-sale, or the dispute may be determined by the Auctioneer, and his decision shall be final and binding on all parties. The biddings shall be regulated by the Auctioneers from time to time as the sale proceeds, and no bidding shall be retracted.

2. Each purchaser shall give his proper name and address on being declared as such, and pay a deposit of 25%, the Auctioneers having the right to call upon the purchaser to pay the whole amount or any part thereof exceeding the said 25%.

3. The Auctioneers give no guarantee or warranty as to the state, quantity or quality of any lot or lots, either on their own behalf or on behalf of the vendor, the purchaser being deemed to have satisfied himself as to the state, quantity and quality of any lot he may bid for, prior to bidding, and the act of bidding shall be accepted by all parties as conclusive proof of his having done so, and he shall be bound thereby.

4. The lots to be at the risk of the buyer from the fall of the hammer, and to be removed at the buyer's risk and expense within 12 hours of the purchaser being declared, neither the Auctioneers or the Vendor being responsible for the safe custody or for any inaccuracies in description either in advertisements or made at time of sale, and if any error or defect shall be discovered in any lot after Sale the purchaser shall not be entitled to and shall not make any claim for compensation or allowance.

5. Each lot is sold subject to mutual right of way for clearance.

6. In the event of any damage being done to the fabric or the building during the removal of any lot or lots the owner of the lot causing the said damage shall make such damage good at his own expense, and he shall be responsible for the acts of his servants or agents, and failing the making good of such damage the Auctioneers or the Vendor within their discretion shall have the right to reinstate and make good such damage, and the cost of same, if not paid on demand by the owner of said lot referred to, shall be recoverable as and for liquidated damages.

7. No deliveries of any lot or lots will be permitted during the Sale, but deliveries will be given at conclusion of sale each day or each morning prior to ten o'clock, and no lots shall be removed from the premises without the production of a receipted account, or a written order from the Auctioneers.

8. The Auctioneers reserve the right to withdraw any lot or lots from Sale.

9. Purchasers shall be bound by the entry in the Sale Book, and there shall be no appeal therefrom.

10. Upon failure to comply with any of the above conditions the money deposited in part payment shall be forfeited, and all lots uncleared within the time aforesaid shall be re-sold by public or private sale, and the deficiency (if any) on such re-sale, together with all charges attending the same, shall be made good by the defaulter or defaulters at the present sale, and be recoverable as and for liquidated damages, but any surplus that may arise therefrom shall belong to the Vendors.

11. The Auctioneers to be the sole arbitrators in every matter of dispute.

12. Purchasers shall pay to the Auctioneers 5% Auction Commission.
